

An Industry INKED

Tuesday, August 16, 2016

Event Itinerary

ROM Welcome & Introductions

Remarks

Brilynn Ferguson, Industry Ink

Remarks

Deborah Davidson, The Tattoo Project

Discussion with

Charlotte Langley, Scout Canning
Jeremy Moore, Henderson Brewing
Nick Kennedy, Civil Liberties

Reception, Book Sales

Cash Bar Closes 9:15 pm

Tattoos: Ritual. Identity. Obsession. Art
Viewing from 8:00 to 9:30 pm

Join the conversation:
#ROMSpeaks

Speakers:

Brilynn Ferguson is a freelance photographer & Filmmaker, and creator of Industry Ink- a project that documents the tattoos and stories behind members of the food and beverage industry.

Deborah Davidson is a sociology professor at York University, whose current research focuses on the meaning placed on individual tattoos. She has a book on the subject, The Tattoo Project: Commemorative Tattoos, Visual Culture, and the Digital Archive, forthcoming.

Charlotte Langley has over 10 years of practice as a chef & culinarian, and in that time has forged a reputation for herself as a creative multi tasker utterly dedicated to the art and craft of cooking.

Jeremy Moore is Assistant Brewer and Draught Specialist at Henderson Brewing.

Nick Kennedy is co-owner and bartender at Civil Liberties on Bloor Street West.

Reception Fare:

Roast meats served with fresh potato bread, pickles and condiments.

Marinated tomato salad with herbs and pickled onions

Potato with dill and fresh butter

Hard & soft cheeses

Fruit & Crisps

Tastings by Henderson Brewing

Full Cash Bar available

