

DEPARTMENT OF SOCIOLOGY
LECTURE AND WORKSHOP

ALANA LENTIN

LECTURE: "RELATIONALITY AND THE DOING OF RACE"

WORKSHOP: RSVP SONIA D'ANGELO

The Department of Sociology presents a lecture and graduate student workshop by Professor Alana Lentin, a political sociologist and social theorist who works on the critical theorization of race, racism, and anti-racism.

Alana Lentin is Associate Professor of Cultural and Social Analysis at Western Sydney University and Hans Speier Visiting Professor of Sociology at The New School. She is the co-author of The Crises of Multiculturalism: Racism in a Neoliberal Age (2011) and the co-editor of Racism and Sociology (2014).

Prof. Lentin's site: <http://www.alanalentin.net/>

To assist with planning, please RSVP for lunch to Lorraine Mar (marlor@yorku.ca) by April 19. RSVP for the Workshop to Sonia D'Angelo (sond3@yorku.ca)

Friday, April 28

Lecture:

10am–12 PM

Faculty and Graduate Student Lunch:

12-1pm

Workshop:

1-2:30pm

VH 2101